ESTATE HOUSE ANNOUNCES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – March 4, 2009 – Well known in the valley as a master restaurateur with genuine warmth and sincerity, Zoran Klisara, has been appointed the new General Manager for Estate House restaurant, in downtown Scottsdale at the SouthBridge district. He will oversee all restaurant operations and a staff of 60. “I am excited about the opportunity to continue to enhance the dining experience at the Estate House. My philosophy is that personal touch and sincerity towards the guest is paramount in building guests’ loyalty.”

Zoran brings more than 20 years of restaurant experience to the position at Estate House. He joins the SouthBridge Restaurant Group from J & G Steakhouse at The Phoenician where he held the title of GM. Earlier, Klisara was General Manager at Lon’s at The Hermosa Inn and prior to that he held the same position for other Scottsdale restaurants including Marco Polo and Mastro’s Steakhouse. Klisara began his career for the Mastro’s Restaurant Group in Los Angeles, where he held the position of Regional Operation Director.

Klisara holds a degree in Economics from Arizona State University and a MBA degree in Business from the University of Phoenix. A native of Germany, Klisara's parents were also restaurateurs. He currently resides in Scottsdale.
